Bayliner 175 2007 - ☐ Sunbrella Cockpit cover (008-42-036175-L)

Product description

This protective boat cover can be used either while your boat is moored or while it's being trailered and was specifically designed to fit the configuration of your boat.

This boat cover is attached to the boat with the use of snaps and supported with poles.

Custom-made to protect the interior of your boat from weather, dirt, dust and other unwanted intrusions, it is the perfect accessory to protect and maintain the value of your boat.

Cut-outs for bow and aft top mounting brackets will automatically be done for boat models that have full enclosures available.

Keep your boat an original. If we made it in the past we can make it again. This is the same cover initially designed for the year of your boat when it first came out of the factory. No measurements are required.
